

SAVE THE DATE - May 31st

Community Connections:
A Day of Shared Experiences

WHAT: Community Service Provider Fair & opportunities to hear and learn from others with shared experiences.

- Community service providers will be on site with information tables to make resources better known to the community.
- Keynote Speaker: Dr. Kevin Becker (clinical psychologist specializing in trauma and crisis intervention).
- Discussions with guests from communities including: Chardon, OH, Columbine, the Nickel Mines Amish Community, Tucson, Virginia Tech, and more.

WHERE: Walnut Hill Community Church, Bethel

WHEN: Saturday, May 31, 2014

- 9:15 a.m. Free Continental Breakfast and start of Community Fair
- 10:15 a.m. Keynote speaker
- Morning and afternoon discussion forums
- 2:30 p.m. program concludes

Special Notes:

- Free, safe childcare available during Keynote Speaker and discussion forums.
- Lunch available for purchase on site.
- This event is a collaboration of many groups and organizations throughout Newtown working to provide programming to meet the recovery needs of the community.
- More detailed information to come!!!